Description

Elegant French card table, dating back to the first half of the 19th century (ca. 1820-1840), characterized by wavy legs typical of the Louis Philippe style. Made of fine walnut, this center table easily transforms into a large game table. The top opens like a book, allowing the useful surface to be doubled, while the side intended for play is characterized by an elegant green cloth. Thanks to its refined finishes and refined walnut burl inlays, this coffee table will add a touch of sophisticated elegance to any environment in which it will be placed. A unique and highly valuable piece of furniture, ideal for those who love classic and refined style. Measurements: H x W x D 73 x 101 x 57cm / W x D open 101 x 114cm
