Description

Charcoal drawing by Corneille, also known as Guillaume van Beverloo (1922-2010). A painter, sculptor, and engraver from Liège, born to Dutch parents, he was a co-founder of the Cobra movement. The drawing displays expressive lines characteristic of his early career. It is dated 1946. The figures are reminiscent of early 20th-century cabaret dancers and revues of the period, with a certain exoticism in their...
