Description

Anders ÖSTERLIND (1887-1960) Major painter of the Crozant School. A beautiful oil on panel depicting a rolling landscape dotted with a few houses in the heart of a valley. The composition is structured by tall, slender trees in the foreground, opening up the view towards a village and the surrounding hills. The brushwork is lively and expressive, with a palette dominated by luminous greens and deep blues, characteristic of Österlind's work in the Creuse Valley. Here, the artist captures all the poetry of the landscapes of central France that made the Crozant School famous. Artwork: 55 × 73 cm; with frame: 72 × 90 cm. We are constantly buying all works from the Crozant School: paintings, drawings, and watercolors. Free appraisals and valuations. We travel throughout France.
