Description

The Triumph of Venetian Crystal: A Unique Opportunity Allow yourself to be enchanted by a great opportunity among my collection: a magnificent pair of twin chandeliers in Murano glass from the 1920s/1930s, crafted by the prestigious Fornace Pauly. These masterpieces are finished in the refined "crystal" color -- a term that, in ancient Murano tradition, signifies the purest and most absolute transparency -- capable of reflecting light with unparalleled intensity. The architecture of these pieces is a hymn to Venetian glass art. The high crest features a stunning double decoration consisting of eight flowers and sixteen leaves (eight high and eight low) with decorative tassels. The lower section mirrors this ornamental richness, creating perfect balance. The true hallmark of the Master glassblower lies
