Description

COD 10954 Antique 17th-century Flemish painting. Oil on panel artwork depicting a splendid Madonna and Child within a niche, surrounded by a garland of masterfully painted flowers and fruit. The panel features a carved symbol attributable to the Guild of Saint Luke (see photo), a guild of artists active in Antwerp during the Baroque period. The composition follows the style of Cornelis Schut (1597-1655), a pupil of Rubens, both of whom were members of the guild along with the greatest painters of the Dutch Golden Age. A beautifully scaled and proportioned artwork, it is a rare find for antique dealers and collectors. The painting has undergone some minor restoration work, but is overall in excellent condition. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of
