Description

In this period of municipal elections, where every detail counts in affirming one's commitment to and attachment to republican values, this bronze medallion depicting Marianne embodies far more than a simple decorative object. It becomes a powerful symbol, a heirloom to be displayed with pride, and a centerpiece for those who wish to celebrate civic spirit and democracy. This medallion, with its impressive diameter of 55 cm, is a true 19th-century work of art. Its bronze, patinated by time, tells the story of decades of history, while its red or blue velvet border, depending on the model, adds a touch of elegance and solemnity. The back, carefully closed by a wooden panel, guarantees a robust and refined finish, typical of the artisanal expertise of the period. Marianne, the emblematic figure of the
