Description

A glazed ceramic bowl with a stylized design in shades of black, brown, and blue-gray. The material treatment, the relief of the decoration, and the nuanced glazing are characteristic of Michel Anasse's work. Signed on the back. Michel Anasse, a ceramicist and sculptor, opened the Atelier des Issarts in Vallauris in 1956 with Nicole Anasse, before continuing his work in Jausiers from 1977 onwards. His production from the 1960s and 1970s is sought after for its free-form shapes and highly textured surfaces.
