

Auguste étienne François Mayer, View Of Magerøya Island In Norway In Rough Weather

6 000 EUR

Signature : Auguste Étienne François MAYER (Brest, 1805 - Brest, 1890)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 96 cm

Height : 63 cm

Description

Auguste Étienne François MAYER (Brest, 1805 - Brest, 1890) View of Magerøya Island in Norway in Rough Weather Oil on canvas Signed lower right Ate MAYER 63 x 96 cm Important giltwood frame decorated with languettes, florets, and oak leaves Dimensions with frame: 105 x 130 cm Note: our painting could correspond to two paintings exhibited by the artist at the Salon: 1) View of the North Cape, Magerøya Island, in the Finmarck, Paris Salon in 1839, no. 14832) The North Cape in the Finmarck, Magerøya Island, View taken from the east and from the point of Skarsvog (Voyage to Scandinavia of the corvette La Recherche), Boulogne-sur-Mer Salon in 1847, no. 1157 There is a lithograph by Léon Sabatier of this painting, with variations, entitled Skarsvaag Point, Magerøe Island, in Finland, Norway, and

Dealer

Cerca Trova

Paintings and works on paper

Tel : + 33 6 71 46 46 57

Mobile : + 33 6 71 46 46 57

33, rue Chaptal

Paris 75009

taken from Voyages in Scandinavia, Lapland, Spitsbergen and the Faroe Islands (Atlas, vol. 1), published in Paris in 1852 by Arthus-Bertrand, under the direction of Paul Gaimard (see illustration).