Description

A color silkscreen print with a geometric composition, organized on a grid of blue circles punctuated by a few vertical yellow, red, and blue shapes. The work is consistent with the visual vocabulary of Yaacov Agam, a major figure in kinetic art and geometric abstraction. The print is signed in the lower right corner, annotated EA 35/37 in the lower left corner, and presented framed under glass. Born in 1928, Yaacov Agam is renowned for his work exploring perception, visual movement, and optical variations. His prints and silkscreens occupy a significant place in his graphic oeuvre.
