Description

An elegant, bombé marquetry commode, opening with four drawers in the front, made during the Napoleon III period in the Louis XV style. The harmoniously curved front and sides are entirely veneered with a rich frieze of chevrons and butterfly wings, framed by contrasting stringing, creating a beautiful effect of depth and light. The perfectly fitted drawers are adorned with gilt bronze rocaille handles, accompanied by finely crafted mounts and sabots, elegantly highlighting the curved lines of the piece. The top is finished with a red marble slab veined with white, molded in a corbel shape, perfectly complementing the overall design. This commode will find its place in any room of your home.
