

Pair Of Chinese Mammoth Ivory Sculptures - 20th Century

1 100 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ivory

Description

Refined pair of Chinese sculptures from the 20th century, carved in mammoth ivory. The figures depict two traditional characters: the female figure likely represents Guanyin, the Goddess of Compassion in East Asian Buddhism, while the male figure portrays a warrior or guardian deity, possibly inspired by legendary generals such as Guan Yu. Finely detailed carvings highlight the craftsmanship and symbolic richness of Chinese art. Origin: China Period: 20th century Dimensions: 89 cm / 58 cm height SKU: 16544
