Description

Silver étui depicting Louis XVI and Marie-Antoinette, 19th century Small elongated silver étui decorated in embossed and chased work with neoclassical garlands, ribbons and scrolling foliage, in the Louis XVI style, widely appreciated in 19th-century European decorative arts. The lid is decorated with two oval medallions showing the profile portraits of Louis XVI and Marie-Antoinette, within a symmetrical composition of wreaths and classical ornamental motifs inspired by late 18th-century design. Interior with traces of original gilding. Hallmarked on the bottom with three small stamps, the central one showing a crowned fleur-de-lis. European work, 19th century. Good condition, normal wear.
