Description

A stylish pair of vintage sterling silver earrings by the renowned Mexican silversmith TANE Orfebres, dating to 1997. These earrings were originally purchased at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Acapulco, Mexico, and are accompanied by their original suede pouch. Crafted in solid sterling silver (.925) with gold-plated (vermeil) elements, the design features an elegant interwoven knot motif, matching the necklace from the same collection. The reverse is clearly marked "TANE MEXICO .925," confirming their authenticity and silver content. The earrings measure approximately 2.4 cm in height and are fitted with secure clip fittings. TANE is widely regarded as one of Mexico's leading luxury silversmiths, known for its high-quality craftsmanship and distinctive modern designs. A
