Description

A Louis XVI oval chiffonier table in mahogany and mahogany veneer, dating from the late 18th century. It opens at the front with three drawers, each with a working lock and key; the locks are original. The white veined marble top is surrounded by an openwork brass gallery. The four fluted and reeded legs are joined by a stretcher shelf. This small four-sided table, in very good original condition, has been fully restored and French polished. Space between the drawers and the shelf: 25 cm.
