Description

This painting by Rosa Torras depicts a formally dressed rider mounted on a dark horse within a landscaped setting featuring trees, balustrades, and Mediterranean-style architecture. The composition is rendered with smooth brushwork and soft tonal transitions, combining muted earth tones with fresh greens and pale architectural highlights. The scene presents a calm, controlled equestrian study with balanced proportions and a gently stylised, illustrative quality. Rosa Torras is a 20th-century artist; further biographical details are currently limited. Little documented information is available about the artist; however, the work demonstrates a controlled figurative style with attention to equestrian form and composed landscape settings.
