Description

Large Provençal glass-fronted Louis XV style walnut bookcase - 20th century. Beautiful and important Louis XV style walnut bookcase, dating from the early 20th century. This piece of furniture is distinguished by its elegant curved silhouette, rich sculpted ornamentation, and fine craftsmanship, typical of traditional French furniture. The front opens with two large glazed doors in the upper section, allowing for the display of books, objects, or collections, and with two molded panels in the lower section, bringing balance and elegance to the whole. The top of the piece is crowned with a wide, richly sculpted, curved finial, decorated with a floral basket and scrolling foliage, an emblematic motif of the Louis XV style. The lower rail is also sculpted with a vase and foliage design, resting on cabriole
