Description

Unusual bronze sculpture "Pensive Napoleon" - Signed Lemoyne - late 19th century. Elegant bronze sculpture with a brown patina depicting Napoleon Bonaparte in a meditative pose, seated on a rock, his head resting on his hand in an emblematic posture of reflection. A wick, housed in the base under a cover, provides lighting to the sculpture. The Emperor is portrayed in his recognizable attire, wearing his famous bicorn hat, in an expressive and balanced composition. The treatment of the face, drapery, and clothing details testifies to high-quality craftsmanship, imbued with realism and sensitivity. The scene is enriched with finely sculpted military attributes (cannon, equipment), reinforcing the historical and symbolic character of the work. The sculpture rests on a black veined marble base,
