

Hercules And The Erymanthian Boar, Antoine-louis Barye (1795-1875)

3 000 EUR

Signature : Barye

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 9,2

Height : 13,2

Depth : 5,5

Description

A beautiful bronze sculpture with a contrasting medal patina. Exquisitely chased, antique casting. Version with a rectangular, naturalistic base. Created circa 1825. Signed BARYE on the terrace. Dimensions: 13.2 x 9.2 x 5.5 cm. Rodin, who claimed throughout his life to have had Barye as his master, owned a copy of this monumental work by Barye. Examples: Copenhagen, Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek; Paris, Musée Rodin (Auguste Rodin owned a copy of this work); Paris, Musée du Louvre, variant with two boars. High-resolution photographs available upon request.

Dealer

Untamed Bronzes

Galerie de sculptures

Mobile : 0668562553

Angouleme 16000