200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

An elegant 19th-century glove box in ebonized wood, decorated with fine mother-of-pearl marquetry in a geometric pattern with iridescent reflections. Its typical elongated shape was designed for storing leather gloves. The lid is adorned with an engraved brass cartouche, adding a refined touch. The natural wood ends contrast with the black background. Original interior, antique hinges, keyhole (key missing).

Dimensions: 27.5 × 10 × 9 cm
