Description

An elegant antique Viennese porcelain box, dating from the late 19th or early 20th century, representative of the refined Royal Vienna style. This hand-painted porcelain box is distinguished by a superb deep cobalt blue background, richly decorated with finely hand-applied raised gilding, creating a remarkable effect of depth and light. The lid features a central medallion adorned with a delicate gallant scene with figures and a putto, entirely hand-painted with great finesse and quality of execution. Dimensions: diameter 13 cm, height 7 cm.
