Description

Beautiful drawing depicting a rolling landscape in the South of France, perhaps Menton. The composition highlights a succession of hills and contours bathed in a gentle atmosphere, rendered with great sensitivity. The linework, both fluid and structured, perfectly reflects the pursuit of light and depth characteristic of Léon Detroy, an important figure of the Crozant School. The artist captures all the poetry of a southern landscape in a restrained and elegant execution. Signed lower right. Presented in a beautiful antique molded and patinated frame. Dimensions: artwork: 47 × 63 cm; with frame: 63 × 83 cm. Shipping: EUR30. We are constantly purchasing works from the Crozant School. Appraisals and travel throughout France.
