Provençal Boxwood Sculpture, A Shepherd And His Flock, 19th Century.

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

A beautiful and rare folk art sculpture in boxwood (or perhaps olive wood?) depicting a shepherd and his flock of sheep and goats. The sculpture is in good condition considering its age. The dog, to the left of the shepherd, is missing a leg. A donkey, made by the same sculptor, also accompanies the sculpture. A small piece of one of the donkey's legs is missing. Width of the main sculpture: 26 cm, height: 24 cm; width of the donkey's base: 17 cm, height: 10.5 cm.
