Description

A Louis XV Style Marquetry Commode with Marble Top - 19th Century. This charming Louis XV style commode, made in the 19th century, features elegant marquetry with a floral design, combined with beautiful bronze mounts and a warm-toned antique marble top. The gently curved front opens with three drawers, each adorned with floral marquetry in wood veneer, framed by decorative stringing. The drawers are dovetailed, demonstrating high-quality traditional cabinetmaking. The commode is topped with a molded marble slab with a corbin beak edge, in shades of beige and brown, perfectly suited to its curved lines. The uprights are embellished with chased bronze mounts, and the lower rail features a central bronze ornament, adding elegance and depth to the piece. The sides are also inlaid, and
