Description

HAVILAND, LIMOGES White porcelain fish service - 14 pieces Polychrome marine décor, green rims and moulded rocaille motifsProduced in the second half of the 20th century by the Haviland manufactory, this "Calanques" fish service represents one of the most accomplished interpretations of the marine repertoire developed by the house. Crafted in white porcelain with a shaped, undulating rim highlighted by green fillets and adorned with moulded rocaille motifs, the ensemble stands out for the remarkable vibrancy of its polychrome decoration.Each piece unfolds a narrative scene inspired by the Mediterranean world: fish, crustaceans, shells, seaweed and fishing accessories form a rich iconographic vocabulary, rendered with naturalistic precision and a luminous palette. "bouillabaisse spirit," so characteristic of southern French decoration, is here reimagined with the technical finesse and chromatic discipline emblematic of Haviland.The service forms a coherent decorative suite, in which each plate functions as an autonomous tableau, while the large platter and the sauceboat anchor the composition with sculptural presence. The balance between narrative exuberance and formal elegance gives this model a distinctive place within the production of the late 20th century. Composition 12 fish plates - Ø 24.5 cm1 sauceboat with attached stand1 large fish platter - 60.5 × 25.5 cm Marks Each piece bears the double mark:Haviland Limoges France - Calanque (in blue)haviland france limoges (in green) A sought-after ensemble for the richness of its decoration, the coherence of its composition and the quality of its execution. A complete, decorative and refined service, perfectly suited to an elegant reception table or to a collection dedicated to the great French manufactories of the 20th century.
