Description

An elegant four-panel Asian screen, crafted from black lacquered wood and richly decorated with mother-of-pearl and hardstone inlays. The main panel features superb scenes of horsemen and figures in relief, set against a backdrop of stylized mountain landscapes, executed with great finesse and remarkable attention to detail. Each panel is framed by a decorative geometric and floral frieze, enhancing the overall refined aesthetic. The lower section is adorned with animal motifs in relief, adding rhythm and balance to the composition. The reverse is decorated with a scattering of gilded flowers on a black background, typical of 20th-century Asian craftsmanship, offering a dual decorative purpose. This piece is in the spirit of 20th-century Chinese or Japanese productions, inspired by traditional
