Description

We are pleased to present this 20th-century oil painting on plywood panel. This splendid mountain landscape is signed on the lower left, but the signature is illegible and the artist has not been identified. On the back are some inscriptions dated 1972. This small painting captures the allure of the mountains with their wild nature. In the foreground, a rushing stream flows through the wooded valley, while majestic mountains rise in the background. The greenery and the sparse snow on the rocks suggest the landscape was painted during summer or spring. We can assume it is an Alpine landscape in the Austrian region. The painting stands out for its evident pictorial quality and highly personal style, with textured brushstrokes. The colors perfectly capture the light and atmosphere of the mountains. The
