Description

An elegant folding table, veneered in richly grained burr walnut, opening to reveal a game table with a green felt-covered top. The upper surface features a beautiful burr walnut veneer with a contrasting, cloud-like pattern, adorned in the center with an inlaid checkerboard, making it suitable for use as a chess or checkers table. Once opened, the table reveals a wide playing surface covered in green felt in perfect condition, edged with a decorative braid, ideal for card games. The structure rests on four turned legs of stained solid wood (likely oak), joined by a shaped stretcher. The apron opens with two discreet and functional side drawers for storing cards, chips, or accessories. The hinges are in perfect condition, offering smooth and precise opening. The piece has a beautiful, warm patina, with meticulous
