Description

A very pretty and rare Louis XIII style corner cabinet in solid oak, waxed and patinated. The lower section of the cabinet opens with two doors decorated with a lovely diamond-point pattern, revealing a central shelf (see photo). The upper section forms a corner bookcase and features two oak shelves with molded fronts. The back is lined with red fabric. This piece is a fine example of late 19th/early 20th-century craftsmanship, incorporating older elements and wood, notably the two doors. Dimensions: Height 182 cm, Width of each side 66 cm, Width of the front 97 cm, Height of the lower section 78 cm, Depth at the center of each shelf 40 cm, Distance between shelves from the top edge: 27 cm / 29 cm / 29 cm.
