Description

Important Decorative Neoclassical Bronze Rope and Tassel Center Table Striking neoclassical center table crafted in patinated bronze with a rich brown-gilt tone, raised on an elegant tripod base with radiating stretchers. The refined decorative vocabulary features finely cast twisted rope motifs and tassels, held by stylized mounts reminiscent of hands or ribbed leaves. Slender spear-shaped feet enhance the airy structure and theatrical presence of the piece. The large circular marble top displays bold natural veining, creating a highly decorative and sculptural effect. With its generous scale and quality craftsmanship, this table belongs to the tradition of high decorative Parisian furniture from the late Art Deco period and immediate post-war years, in the spirit of renowned decorating houses such as Maison
