

French Gilt Bronze Five-light Candelabrum, Late 19th Century

1 730 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 41 cm

Height : 49 cm

Description

This elegant French five-light candelabrum, crafted in richly gilt bronze, is a refined example of late 19th-century decorative artistry. The piece features a beautifully sculpted central stem adorned with flowing rocaille motifs and subtle floral detailing, rising from a shaped and ornamented base that provides both stability and visual balance. The five gracefully scrolling arms extend outward in a harmonious, symmetrical arrangement, each supporting a finely cast candle holder with delicately fluted cups resting on petal-shaped drip pans. The overall design evokes the Louis XV style, with its fluid lines, naturalistic curves, and emphasis on movement and lightness. The warm, original gilding enhances the intricate details and gives the piece a luminous presence, whether displayed on a

Dealer

Chic French Antiques

Purveyor of fine French antiques dating from the 18th to the 20th century

Mobile : 0612049287

Showroom

La Ciotat 13600

mantel, dining table, or console. The underside reveals traditional casting techniques consistent with quality French production of the period. Both decorative and functional, this candelabrum brings a timeless sophistication to any interior, seamlessly blending classical inspiration with the romantic charm characteristic of 19th-century French design.