Description

Parisian Genre Scene Signed Léonie Lebas Oil on Panel Late 19th Century Charming Parisian genre scene depicting an elegant woman and a flower seller. Carefully composed with soft lighting. Signed Léonie Lebas. Léonie Lebas was a French painter active in Paris at the end of the 19th century. A specialist in genre scenes, particularly Parisian high society (walks, markets), she was a member of the Société des Artistes Français from 1884 and exhibited regularly at the Salon des Artistes Français. Inscribed on the back "Blanche Lecomte," this likely refers to the elegant woman in the red bustle dress, the subject of the painting. French School, late 19th century. Oil on panel. Period frame, late 19th century, gilt. Frame dimensions: 49 x 40 cm Panel dimensions: 33 x 23.5 cm Shipping Costs France: EUR27 EEC:
