Description

This lithograph, countersigned by François-Xavier Lalanne in 1982, bears the number 151/220. François-Xavier Lalanne (1927-2008) was a French sculptor and engraver. Initially known for his sculptures of animals, both domestic and wild, which he presented in a utilitarian style (rhino-secretary; sardine tin-sofa, etc.), animals are also the central subject of his engraved work. Unfortunately, the lithograph is badly damaged. We note creases, marks in the margin, small spots, paper deformations, and small tears. Our photographs allow you to appreciate the quality of the work. For condition details, please carefully examine the photos. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
