Description

Superb Art Deco chandelier by Georges Leleu signed "Jehel" (1883-1961) Circa 1930 A large central bowl of thick molded pressed glass with a stylized floral design (high quality) Three molded pressed glass shades echoing the geometric pattern of the frame Magnificent nickel-plated bronze frame typical of Leleu chandeliers with beautiful ornamental elements (see photos) The central bowl is signed "Jehel" (Georges Leleu's pseudonym for "GL") (see photo) Completely rewired (4 lights in total) This model is particularly noteworthy for its extreme restraint, despite the presence of its three shades, which echo the shape and geometric design of the frame, lending it great elegance The entire piece is in perfect condition and of very high quality!
