Description

Important Louis XIV period commode in walnut and marquetry veneer on softwood. This commode is either from Piedmont or southern Germany. It has a very handsome stature with a curved front. The marquetry features scrolling foliage on all sides in burr walnut. The handles, keyhole escutcheons, and lock are original. The piece is in very good condition, having been restored a few years ago. It dates from the very early 18th century. Delivery by carrier on a pallet to your ground floor entrance: EUR250 in France, EUR600 in the EU, and EUR2000 for the rest of the world.
