Description

Nude drawing by Vergeaud. This drawing of a woman, seemingly caught in the act of waking, is executed in charcoal and resembles a quick sketch, suggesting that the young woman is attempting to cover herself in a state of panic. The bedroom is briefly depicted, and the charm of this drawing lies in this snapshot. On the back of the drawing, on bluish paper (with a VF watermark), is annotated in pencil "drawing by Vergneaud," an artist who was a student of Gustave Moreau and Cormon. In fine, unrestored condition, this drawing is presented with a patina throughout and without glass. Dimensions: 40 x 30 cm
