Description

Description: An important and rare 17th-century Italian cabinet, crafted from ebonized wood and featuring a façade of great architectural finesse. Richly adorned with gilt bronze mounts, it rests on characteristic lion's paw feet, reflecting the influence of Baroque decorative arts. At its center, a finely carved relief depicts Saint Sebastian during his martyrdom under a tree, pierced by silver arrows - a striking symbolic and devotional composition that enhances the cabinet's artistic and historical value. The architectural structure, combined with the sculptural details and contrasting materials, makes this cabinet a highly sought-after collector's item, ideal for cabinets of curiosities, refined interiors, or collections of antique European furniture. Dimensions: Height: 57 cm
