Description

Description: An important and rare 14th-century Romanesque stone sculpture depicting the Virgin Mary holding the Infant Jesus. Hand-carved from a single block of stone, this piece exemplifies the transition between late Romanesque and early Gothic art through its frontal composition, stylized drapery, and profoundly spiritual expression. The sculpture embodies the devotional character of medieval religious art, likely intended for ecclesiastical or private worship. Its compact dimensions and imposing presence make it a highly sought-after collector's item for enthusiasts of medieval sculpture. Its surface displays a beautiful, aged patina, attesting to its history and enhancing its authenticity and sculptural depth. Dimensions: Height: 37 cm Width: 26 cm Depth: 14 cm Condition: Good
