

Set Of Four Hand-blown Blue Bubble Glass Tumblers, 20th Century

320 EUR

Signature : Verrerie de Biot

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 8 cm

Height : 12 - 13 cm

Description

This beautiful set of four hand-blown glass tumblers comes from the renowned glassmaking village of Biot, in the South of France, famous for its distinctive bubble glass technique. Each glass is crafted using traditional methods, creating a lively pattern of suspended air bubbles throughout the body of the glass, an iconic signature of Biot production. Made entirely of subtly tinted blue glass, these tumblers capture the light beautifully, evoking the colors of the Mediterranean Sea. Their softly irregular shapes and slight variations reflect their handmade nature, giving each piece its own unique character while maintaining a harmonious set. The gently flared form makes them comfortable to hold and perfectly suited for everyday use, whether serving water, juice, or cocktails. Their timeless yet

Dealer

Chic French Antiques

Purveyor of fine French antiques dating from the 18th to the 20th century

Mobile : 0612049287

Showroom

La Ciotat 13600

relaxed aesthetic allows them to blend effortlessly into both rustic and contemporary interiors, adding a touch of Provençal charm to any table. These glasses are in very good vintage condition, with minor irregularities inherent to hand-blown glass.