Description

The Saint, the Ecumenical and the General Council of Trent by F. de Rosset in Paris at the shop of Nivelles at Sébastien Cramoisy 1615
Original edition 11.5x16.5cm Copy with the arms of François de Coetlogon (1631-1706), Bishop of Cornouaille. It is the story of a misadventure that befell him on arriving in Quimper, his carriage having become stuck in the mud, which inspired Jean de La Fontaine's fable of the carter stuck in the mud (1706).
