Description

Oil on canvas, portrait, English school, 18th century. This portrait depicts a man from the English bourgeoisie or minor nobility, shown half-length in a slightly turned pose. The sitter gazes calmly and confidently at the viewer, his right hand resting on his chest, a gesture often associated with elegance and restraint. He is dressed in a simple brown coat, typical of late 18th-century men's fashion, with a delicately rendered white jabot. The face is softly modeled, highlighting a rosy complexion and a composed expression. Oil on canvas, relined. Shipping within France: EUR30. Shipping within Europe: EUR50.
