Description

A very pretty painting, oil on canvas depicting Cupid giving an apple of love to the three Graces, by Laigle, a painter of the 19th-century French school. A charming theme and, above all, a very beautiful execution with exquisite overall finesse (faces and poses of the three seated women). The painting is signed and dated 1901. The canvas and frame are in very good condition. Length: 56 cm (65 cm with frame). Width: 46 cm (57 cm with frame). A very fine painting from the Art Nouveau period.
