Pair Of Silk Curtains With Empire-style Decor, Featuring Temples, Urns, And Garlands

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 294 cm

Width : 118 cm

Description

An elegant pair of curtains with an Empire-inspired design, printed on a beautiful cream-colored canvas with ivory undertones. The design, rendered in fine grisaille, features delicate neoclassical scenes: antique figures, temples, urns, fountains, and garlands of foliage. These motifs are arranged in an elegant geometric pattern and subtly highlighted with a pale, slightly golden yellow, bringing light and refinement to the whole. This decorative composition evokes the aesthetics of the early 19th century and integrates perfectly into a classic or contemporary interior seeking elegance. The two panels are mounted with hooks for easy installation. A small, old tear has been carefully repaired; it remains discreet and invisible when the curtains are in place. Dimensions of each

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur
French antiques textiles
Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes
Névian 11200

panel: Height: 294 cm Width: 118 cm A charming decorative pair, ideal for dressing a large window or framing a bay window with elegance. Ref. 240326