Description

These figurines depict circus sea lions playing with a ball. Standing on their flippers, they hold a large white ball on their snouts, which turns out to be the bottle stopper. They are made of black and white glazed ceramic, enhanced with gilding. Under the base is a black stamp: "Liqueur CAZANOVE, BORDEAUX- FRANCE" and an impressed number "510". Beautiful festive objects from the 1930s, in very good original condition.
