Description

The technique used on this 1960 vase is sound. It has not undergone any restoration. We note a small chip on the neck and two small chips on the base (visible in the photos). These imperfections are in acceptable locations. The Massier family (Jérôme, Clément, Delphin, Cédric) is a dynasty of ceramists whose lineage predates the French Revolution and who played a key role in the revival of Vallauris ceramics. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the piece. For condition details, please examine the photos carefully. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
