Description

Elegant and refined, this large, two-light gilt bronze candelabra embodies all the decorative charm of the 19th century. Its finely chiseled arms, adorned with acanthus leaves, gracefully wrap around the central stem, creating a fluid and harmonious movement that immediately captures the eye. Above, a delicate fabric screen embroidered with tiny flowers subtly softens the candlelight. Mounted on a gilt bronze stem that extends from the shaft, this screen is height-adjustable, allowing the light to be modulated according to the desired ambiance. The entire piece rests on a flowing base, richly decorated with foliage and rocaille motifs, demonstrating a pronounced taste for ornamentation. This candlestick, both an art object and a decorative element, will bring a
