Description

A rare Louis XVI style swivel chair for children, crafted from stained beechwood and showcasing exquisite cabinetmaking. The trapezoidal back, finely contoured and molded, is upholstered in tight caning, which is also found on the swivel seat. The carved armrests rest on elegantly fluted shafts, harmonizing with the tapered and fluted legs. These are joined by an X-shaped stretcher, ensuring stability and visual balance. The chair is captivating in its quality of execution, the refinement of its proportions, and the timeless charm of its swivel mechanism, a rare feature on a child's chair. An authentic and decorative piece, a testament to neoclassical taste and French craftsmanship.*****Period: 1900. Excellent condition after restoration in our cabinetmaking workshop. Waxed finish. Delivery upon request
