

Late 18th Century - Oil On Canvas - Coat Of Arms Of The Order Of Minims

180 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Quelques manques

Material : Painted metal

Width : 13.5

Height : 15.5

Description

The coat of arms is applied to cardboard and covered with canvas on the back. The depiction of the motto Charitas (with the addition of the attribute "Dei") is attributed to the Order of Minims founded by St. Francis of Paola. It has several paint losses, but retains its chromatic clarity and the heraldic representation with the motto within a shield, surrounded by a laurel wreath. A conventual work of great decorative value and taste. Dimensions: 15.5 x 13.5 cm
