Description

Elegant and unique, this walnut pedestal table is distinguished by its rotating top, resting on four twisted columns. These finely carved columns create a dynamic interplay of lines that animates the piece's silhouette and testifies to precise craftsmanship. The columns rest on a circular support, itself firmly anchored to a square base highlighted around its perimeter by an inverted quarter-round molding. The whole piece offers a refined architectural design. The warm walnut reveals an elegant grain enhanced by a beautiful patina. This neo-Gothic pedestal table, both decorative and functional, provides an ideal support for a sculpture, a vase, or any art object, while adding a classic and timeless touch to an interior.Period: 1900 Excellent condition after restoration in our cabinetmaking
