Description

Louis XVI Period Corner Column with Lacquered Wood Pedestal, Circa 1780. This corner column, with its green lacquered wood pedestal dating from the Louis XVI period, rests on a molded base. Forming a quarter column, it features a triangular wooden top and a curved shaft adorned with fluted moldings. A door on the front is integrated into the fluting, revealing two interior shelves. It has a beautiful patina. This piece is of fine quality, with clean and refined lines. Combining practical utility with ample storage space, suitable for displaying a bust, sculpture, or art object, this column also presents a very attractive visual appeal with its harmonious and delicate curves. It will integrate seamlessly into both antique and contemporary decor. This discreet yet original piece, a testament
