Description

Louis Philippe Lacquered Wardrobe, late 19th century Beautiful two-door Louis Philippe wardrobe, made in the second half of the 19th century.

Lacquered in an elegant antique cream with mouldings and turned columns in a delicate powder blue, this piece combines refinement with a strong visual presence. It features a central upper drawer with lock and four adjustable internal shelves, offering generous storage capacity while maintaining harmonious lines and classical proportions. The doors close perfectly thanks to the original locks, while the spherical feet and fluted columns with floral capitals give the piece lightness and elegance. Perfect for both classical interiors and shabby-chic or Provençal-style settings.
